Your booking and entry to the Air Show is accepted on the basis that you have read our Terms & Conditions below and that you agree to comply with them. Tickets will be sent to your contact address by post prior to the show date. To give us enough time to get your tickets to you the closing date for online booking or receipt of posted booking forms is Friday 19th June 2009.

Entry to the Old Buckenham Air Show is subject to the following terms & conditions:

The management of Old Buckenham Airfield and its agents comply with all Air Show safety requirements as required by Health & Safety regulations and the Air Navigation Order, but airfields are potentially dangerous places so members of the public are reminded that whilst on the airfield and its environs they must behave in a responsible manner and comply with instructions given by the airfield management and the Air Show organisers and their agents. Admission is subject to this understanding.

1. Tickets are only valid for the ticket date.
2. Tickets will be required on the day as proof of purchase for entry to the Airfield.
3. Tickets are not transferable.
4. Proof of concession may be required on admission.
5. No refunds or exchanges are available.
6. Dogs are not permitted, except carer dogs which must be on a lead at all times.
7. Children must be kept under supervision at all times.
8. The airfield management reserves the right to refuse admission.
9. Ticket prices are inclusive of VAT at 15%.
10. Details of programme are correct at the time of going to press and may vary.
11. Air & ground displays content is subject to aircraft availability, weather & operational commitments, is not guaranteed and is at the discretion of the airfield management which reserves the right to change the programme content as circumstances require.
